Preamble

The club landscape in England is diverse. But we have unfortunately been forced to conclude that it often suffers seriously when dealing with seriousness.

A. Overview

§ 1 Name, Legal Form, Headquarters

(1) The name of this club shall be the "Club for Club Hoppers" and is not registered in any club register.

(2) ¹The club is a non-economic, useless club. ²It has no headquarters because its members' heads are in their hindquarters.

(3) The fiscal year is from March 31st through April 1st.

§ 2 Purpose of the Club

(1) ¹The club is pointless but not useless. ²Rather, it should put the serious handling of seriousness on a sound footing.

(2) For this purpose, the club members can

- a) pick their noses,
- b) crack nuts,
- c) suck their thumbs.

(3) The club is selfish and stands by it.

(4) The club has no financial means.

§ 3 Club Officers

(1) The club officers hold honorary positions.

(2) ¹If the club had resources (see § 2 paragraph 4 sentence 1), it could afford a full-time manager. ²Without the necessary funds, this is not possible.

B. Membership

§ 6 Becoming a Member

(1) Everyone can purchase a membership from one of the associations listed in § 4.

(2) ¹To become a member, an informal application is required. ²This application should be submitted in green ink on pink paper.

(3) Membership applications cannot be rejected.

§ 6a Amendment to the Previous Clause

¹With the repeal of § 4, § 6 paragraph 1 sentence 1 has become impractical. ²In its place, memberships can be inherited.

§ 7 Termination of Membership

¹Membership ends with one's life. ²For non-living members, membership does not end.

§ 8 General Meeting

(1) A general meeting shall take place twice per year.

(2) The interval between two general meetings shall be no more than 6 months, 1 week, and 2 days.

(3) The invitation to the next general meeting shall be sent no earlier than 6 months from the previous general meeting.

§ 8a Amendment to the General Meeting

The general meeting may be held at the earliest 2 weeks after the invitation is received.

C. Validity

§ 9 Effective Date

(1) These articles will enter into force on 11.11.2011 at 11:11 am.

(2) ¹If any provision of these by-laws is in conflict with any other, the by-laws will be repealed on 11.11.2011 at 11:11 am and 11 seconds. ²The club is considered to be dissolved in this case.
